Audition Requirements/Information:

Please be prepared to perform at least two selections in contrasting styles from different historical eras displaying a variety of tempos and dynamics. Total performance time should not exceed ten minutes. An accompanist will be provided, if needed.

Auditions are held on the campus of Bethel College by appointment. Auditions for scholarship begin as early as November. Auditions should be completed by May 15. Auditions may be submitted after May 15, in DVD format, but scholarship money may be limited.

To make an appointment for an audition, please contact the Music Department of Bethel College 574.257.3393 or e-mail Music@BethelCollege.edu. Please submit an application for admission to Bethel before scheduling an audition.

If you live more than 300 miles from Bethel, a video may be submitted along with your application in place of a live audition.

Please bring this completed form with you or send it in preparation for the audition. We look forward to hearing from you!
