RELIGION & PHILOSOPHY

The goals of this division are that students shall:

1. Develop a style of service and ministry which cares for the full range of human needs.
2. Be equipped for immediate ministry vocations in churches, para-church organizations, etc., by balancing biblical and theological education with the practical skills necessary for ministry.
3. Have the necessary foundation on which to pursue theological education at the graduate level.
4. Develop skills in interpersonal relationships which reflect biblical values.
5. Learn how to study the Bible and to relate its message to today's world.
6. Be acquainted with the major philosophies and religious systems of the world.
7. Be especially prepared for ministry within the Missionary Church or the student's own denomination, with an awareness of the whole Body of Christ.

Jerusalem University College

Through the college's membership in the Jerusalem University College, students have the opportunity for extended study in the Holy Land as part of the program in Biblical Studies. Both short-term and complete semester programs are available. The division office can provide complete information.

COURSE DESCRIPTIONS

Biblical Studies (BIBL)

- 201. Biblical Interpretation 3 Hours
An introduction to methods of Bible study and to the principles of biblical interpretation. The inductive method is emphasized.
- 211. Old Testament I 3 Hours
The course emphasizes Genesis, Exodus, Joshua and 1-2 Kings. The important themes of creation, election, the exodus, conquest of Canaan and exile are studied. These themes are also traced to the New Testament.
- 212. Old Testament II 3 Hours
A close examination of the major themes and important Psalms (e.g., messianic Psalms), along with a study of the practical wisdom found in Proverbs, Ecclesiastes, Job and Song of Songs. Adult only.
- 213. Old Testament III 3 Hours
A study of the major themes in Isaiah: The Suffering Servant, New Heaven and New Earth, Restoration of Israel, The People of God, etc. Other prophets are surveyed, some are highlighted: Daniel, Ezekiel, Jeremiah, Amos, Hosea, Haggai and Malachi.
- 214. Old Testament Book Study 2 Hours
The textual examination and application of inductive principles of Bible study are applied to the Old Testament book(s) under consideration. Various books will be studied by the determination of the division and the course instructor. May be repeated once when a different book (or books) is (are) offered.
- 215. Old Testament Literature 3 Hours
An introduction to the literature, theological themes, historical background, geography and significance of the Old Testament.
- 216. New Testament Literature 3 Hours
A study of the literature, historical background, geography and significance of the books of the New Testament.
- 221. New Testament I 3 Hours
This course is an introduction to the four Gospels and the person of Jesus Christ. It includes a historical survey of Gospels' interpretation (source, form, redaction criticism) as well as more recent approaches such as narrative criticism. Moreover, this course aims at providing a framework for how to interpret the Gospels properly and consequently how to apply insights from Jesus (his personal example, teaching and theology) in one's life and ministry.
- 222. New Testament II 3 Hours
This course investigates the Book of Acts and the Pauline Epistles in chronological sequence in an effort to understand the missionary efforts of the Early Church. Critical matters of authorship, dating and interpretive methodology are covered. Attention is given to understanding the issues confronting the early church (e.g., Jew/gentile relationship, Law/Grace, Society/Evangelization) and the theology of Paul with a view to fruitful application today.
- 223. New Testament III 3 Hours
This course is a detailed investigation of the General Epistles (Hebrews through Jude) and the Book of Revelation. Critical matters of authorship, dating and interpretive methodology are treated. Careful consideration is given to understanding the theology of these books and their appropriate application for today's church.
Prerequisite: BIBL 201
- 224. New Testament Book Study 2 Hours
The textual examination and application of inductive principles of Bible study are applied to the New Testament book(s) under consideration. Various books will be studied by the determination of the division and the course instructor. May be repeated once when a different book (or books) is (are) offered.
- 250. Biblical Archaeology 3 Hours
This course is an introduction to the discipline of biblical archaeology for the Old Testament, Intertestamental and New Testament Eras. Students survey the history and methods of archaeology and focus on major archaeological artifacts and texts that have illuminated our understanding of the Bible and the biblical world.
- 320. Biblical Theology 3 Hours
This course ties the great theological themes of the Bible together and demonstrates proper methodology for doing Biblical theology. The unity, authority and inspiration of scripture is studied and the foundation for Christian ethics and a Christian worldview is established.

Prerequisite: BIBL 201 or consent of instructor.

327. Disciplemaking Structures in Ministry 3 Hours

This course examines the educational and theological processes of ministry and their intersection with spiritual formation in the lives of participants. The course will focus on the curriculum and practical theology of ministry structures (leadership, group dynamics, trips and special events) common to local ministries. The course will help ministry leaders think intentionally about the spiritual formation and development of students involved in youth ministry programs.

330. Intertestamental History & Literature 3 Hours

This course will survey the historical and spiritual developments that took place between the time of the prophet Malachi and New Testament era, with the purpose of acquiring a greater understanding of the Bible and the message of Jesus. Students will read and discuss texts from the Apocrypha, the pseudepigrapha and the Dead Sea Scrolls, in addition to secondary readings on political and social developments during the 400 years between the Old and New Testaments.

350. Israel Among the Nations 3 Hours

This course surveys the history of the Ancient Near East from early Israelite origins to the end of the New Testament Era. Special attention is given to Israel's unique position and calling among the nations and her interaction with them. The origin of Israel from the call of Abraham to the exile and return under Persia is covered in the first half of the course. The second half of the course covers the period from 539 B.C. to the fall of Jerusalem and her dispersion in 70 A.D.

450. Studies in Biblical Lands 4 Hours

A comprehensive study course including the history, geography, archeology and cultures of some portions of the biblical lands. The program of study includes classroom lectures, on-site field exploration and first hand exposure to the geography and culture.

460. Independent Study in Biblical Studies 1-4 Hours

A course designed to study a particular period, author, topic or other area of particular interest to the student. For major and minor. May be repeated for credit. Permission required from instructor.

470. Contemporary Critical Issues in Biblical Studies 2 Hours

A capstone course that draws contemporary critical issues in Bible, Biblical Theology and hermeneutics together. Each year a current significant critical issues(s) will be examined in a seminar format.

Prerequisites: Senior status or consent of instructor.

Greek (GRK)

151. Elementary Greek I 4 Hours

152. Elementary Greek II 3 Hours

A beginning course consisting of pronunciation, essentials of grammar, composition and reading in the KOINE Greek.

251. Greek Exegesis 2 Hours

This course concentrates on vocabulary, grammar and translation in the Greek New Testament. Principles of exegesis are studied, with practice in selected passages.

- 351. Seminar in Biblical Hebrew 3 Hours
These seminars enable the student to continue to develop his/her biblical languages to encompass large sections or books or the Hebrew and Greek testaments. The emphasis continues to enable the student to acquire the languages as theological tools for exegesis of God's Word.
Prerequisites: HEB 151, 152.

Ministry (MIN)

- 101. Introduction to Ministry 1 Hour
A study of the concept of ministry as a calling and a profession. Gifts for and offices of ministry will be studied. The student will begin developing a theology of ministry.
- 201. Spiritual Formation Experience 0 Hours
An individually-tailored experience, supervised by the student's advisor, in spiritual formation designed to foster growth in Christlikeness through the development of a disciplined approach to the spiritual life. Students can meet this requirement each semester by involvement in some type of spiritually formative experience as designated by course syllabus. This course is pass/fail. It does not carry any credit, but failure to complete the necessary four semesters will prevent graduation.
- 210. The Christian World Mission 3 Hours
The biblical basis and history of missionary motivation, and the study of missionary strategies and methods.
- 310. Evangelism & Discipleship 3 Hours
A study of the methods of evangelism and follow-up, including discipleship training and supervision.
- 313. Practical Skills in Worship Leading 3 Hours
This course should be viewed as a journey into the experiences, resources and techniques of worship leading. Among other topics, it will include an exploration of the following themes: biblical and historical foundations of worship, the worship leader, the worship team, resources, planning and technology.
- 320. Fundamentals of Christian Leadership 3 Hours
An introduction to the administrative/pastoral functions of ministerial leadership. This includes an investigation into basic biblical models of leadership. The course seeks to examine and relate current theory to a biblical model of pastoral ministry. Provides the theoretical background for any of the divisional internships.
- 327. Disciplemaking Structures in Ministry 3 Hours
This course examines the educational and theological processes of ministry and their intersection with spiritual formation in the lives of participants. The course will focus on the curriculum and practical theology of ministry structures (leadership, group dynamics, trips and special events) common to local ministries. The course will help ministry leaders think intentionally about the spiritual formation and development of students involved in ministry programs.
Prerequisite: MIN 310.
- 333. World Religious Movements 3 Hours
An analysis of the major religions of the world, including the most significant new religious movements. Definition and evaluation of cultism is included.
- 340. Theory & Practice of Pastoral Care 3 Hours

A study of the origins, development and growth of the various traditions which have come to be called the Missionary Church.

- 345. Music & Worship 3 Hours
A study of the theology and practice of worship, with special emphasis upon enrichment of worship in a local church. Different traditions of worship are explored and changing worship patterns are studied. Contemporary worship modes, worship music, the use of sacraments and principles of lay leadership for worship are discussed. Denominational traditions form the background for the development of worship programs geared to the local church. Identical with MULH 341. Fulfills Fine Arts General Studies requirement.
- 360. Principles of Church Multiplication & Planting 3 Hours
This course will examine the theory of church multiplication and the various strategies and techniques in the planting of churches.
- 361. Issues in International Ministries 3 Hours
A study of the historical issues faced during each phase in the development of international ministries, including an analysis of the strategies and methodologies in vogue during that period. EF
- 441. Homiletics 3 Hours
A study of the types and structure of sermons, exegesis as a basis for exposition, the proper use of argument and illustration and methods of delivery. Includes a laboratory experience in preparation and delivery of sermons.
Prerequisites: COMM 171, BIBL 201.
- 446. Internship in Ministry 1-4 Hours
An on-the-job approach to the work of the ministry. The application of selected materials to the development of the church is made with the help of the mentor pastor and the college supervisor. Critical analyses are made by the pastor, district superintendent, college supervisor and fellow students involved in the same program. (Two semesters or one entire summer.)
Prerequisite: Junior or senior standing.
- 447. Internship in International Ministries 1-4 Hours
A study on a foreign mission field, observing the work of foreign missionary personnel and national workers. The course includes a brief study of the history, culture and missionary activity of the country prior to the field experience and a report of the student's daily activities during the field experience.

Prerequisites: MIN 210, 310, SOC 356.

- 448. Internship in Evangelism 2 Hours
