

Department of Communication

Mission Statement

Communication is central to the way humans bear the image of God. In the development of this important capacity, the Department of Communication seeks to develop the rhetorical abilities of all Bethel students and to equip its majors to serve in the fields of journalism, public relations, and careers in broadcasting and media communication, as well to prepare for graduate studies. Our department fosters critical thinking, excellence in oral and written expression, ethical decision making, and an appreciation of all human symbolic activities. The Bethel community is enriched through our journalistic programs: Pilot Radio, student-generated newspaper The Beacon, and annual yearbook entitled The Helm. In addition, communication students regularly participate in a variety of fieldwork, internship and community service opportunities in the areas of broadcasting, journalism, and public relations. Students learn to integrate a Christian worldview with valuable vocational skills. Student education culminates in a professional portfolio showcasing the growth of acquired communication skills and the development of a personal career plan.

Professional Writing A.A. Degree

This major is available within both the Adult College and the traditional setting. As the two programs are formatted differently, only adult students may take the courses offered through the Adult College. The adult format is listed in Adult Studies.

The Professional Writing A.A. degree was created for students who want to confront our culture through the art of crafting words in a creative, clear and effective manner. Beyond quality instruction in the classroom, students are encouraged to apply their knowledge by using outside resources through numerous writing contests, internships and freelance writing opportunities. Professors in the program often serve as mentors, providing one-on-one guidance and direction for students pursuing a career in the writing profession including freelance writing, editing, newspaper and magazine journalism, advertising, public relations, layout and design, and book publishing.
