

SPRING TERM – 2012

MASTER OF ARTS IN THEOLOGICAL STUDIES AND MASTER OF MINISTRIES AT THE CHAPEL

BBST 531 Interpreting the New Testament

Jan. 12 – Feb. 16, 2012

David McCabe, Ph.D.
Assistant Professor of New Testament

Office: A304, 574.807.7055
[david.mccabe@Bethel
College.edu](mailto:david.mccabe@BethelCollege.edu)

McCabe earned his Ph.D. at the University of Edinburgh, Scotland, in New Testament and Christian Origins. He earned an M.A. in Theological Studies and an M.A. in Biblical Studies from Asbury Theological Seminary. He is the author of "How to Kill Things with Words: Ananias & Sapphira under the Prophetic Speech-Act of Judgment (Acts 4:32-5:11)" (December 2011), and has recently written "Acts of Ascension: History, Exaltation & Ideological Legitimation," a study on reading the Acts of the Apostles in the Second Century C.E.

THES 534B Old Testament Theology

March 8 – April 19, 2012

Anthony Tomasino, Ph.D.
Associate Professor of Bible

Office: A314, 574.257.3448
tomasia@BethelCollege.edu

Tomasino is an ordained minister with 14 years of pastoral experience. His books include "The World of Jesus" in the series "Putting the Bible in Its Place" (he is also series editor); "Written Upon the Heart: The Ten Commandments for Today's Christian;" and "Judaism before Jesus: The Events and Ideas that Shaped the New Testament World." He also authored Zondervan's "Bible Backgrounds Commentary" on Esther and numerous articles in Bible dictionaries and professional journals.

Bethel College at The Chapel
2505 West Hamilton Road South
Fort Wayne, IN 46814
260.625.6200

Bethel College, an evangelical Christian college affiliated with the Missionary Church, is committed to providing liberating and relevant academic programs, while holding to its Christian responsibility to be a witness and participant in the contemporary world. These programs are academically sound, biblically grounded and theologically challenging.

The Master of Arts in Theological Studies (60 credit hours) and the Master of Ministries (30 credit hours) degree programs are dedicated to preparing men and women at the graduate level for a broad range of ministry opportunities. Courses are now being offered at The Chapel and are based on a six-week format, with one session meeting for four hours each week. Courses are offered in three major areas of study: Church and Ministry (CHMN); Theology, History, Ethics and Society (THES); and Biblical Studies (BBST).

Information is available through Mr. Gary Endersby, on-site advisor at The Chapel, and also through the Bethel College office of graduate studies, phone: 574.807.7660.

BETHEL COLLEGE
I N D I A N A

GRADUATE STUDIES • 1001 BETHEL CIRCLE • MISHAWAKA, IN • 46545-5591
866.449.3291 • www.BethelCollege.edu