Statement of Conduct: Bethel College seeks to provide financial assistance to students who are in agreement with the spirit and ideals of the college and who will have a positive influence on their fellow students. With this in mind, I realize that actions on my part that do not agree with the guidelines of conduct established by the college as stated in the "Student Handbook" may result in forfeiture of my college financial aid.

Student Account/Loan Waiver: I am accepting these funds for the cost of my college education and am having them placed on my student account. I understand that I have the option to request a cancellation or reduction of my loan by the later of (1) 14 days after acknowledgment of the funds being received, or (2) the first day of classes. I give Bethel College permission to keep any excess funds on my account to further my education. I also understand that I can request withdrawal of these funds by written request.
