HOUSING INSTRUCTIONS

Residential life is an important aspect of the Christian academic community. At Bethel College, your residence hall is much more than just a place to sleep and study. Residential life provides a diverse community where you can develop meaningful relationships, deepen your faith and enlarge your view of the world. It is for educational and developmental reasons that unmarried, full-time students who are under the age of 21 and not living with parents are required to live on campus and participate in the meal plan. Students under 21 who have lived on campus for four semesters may apply to move off campus before their fifth semester. Residential housing preference is given to single students ages 18-24.

If you plan to live on campus

- Complete the attached Residence and Roommate Information form. Please complete each section— this information helps our staff match you with your future roommate!
- Read and sign the Community Life Covenant.
- Return the form with a $100 housing deposit (made payable to Bethel College) to the student development office as soon as possible. Our housing has been at capacity for the past several years and it may be necessary to create a housing wait list for incoming students. Room assignments will only be made upon receipt of the $100 deposit. This deposit will be applied to your residence hall damage account.

Please return all forms by the priority date of May 1. Housing assignments are given priority based upon the date(s) the Residence and Roommate Information form and housing deposit are received by the student development office. All housing deposits are refundable up to May 1.

If you plan to commute to campus

- Complete the Personal Information section
- Read and sign the Community Life Covenant.
- Return the entire form to the student development office as soon as possible.

MEAL PLAN OPTIONS

All students living on campus are required to purchase a meal plan. Meals are provided in the dining commons, Sufficient Grounds Coffee House and the Acorn. The dining commons offers meals three times each day except on Saturday when a brunch and dinner are provided. Students have the option of three different meal plans: a 10-meal, a 14-meal or a 20-meal plan. Students living in dormitory-style residence halls are required to purchase the 14-meal plan or the 20-meal plan. Upper level students living in facilities that include kitchens may opt for the 10-meal plan.

RESIDENCE HALLS

Freshman students reside in dormitory-style housing. Males occupy Oakwood-Slater Hall and Manges Hall. Females live in Shupe Hall and Tuckey Hall. Students share a room with either one or two roommates. Each residence hall contains a lobby, lounge and laundry facilities. Room diagrams can be found online at www.BethelCollege.edu/residence.

COMMUNITY LIFE COVENANT

Expectations and Responsibilities for Community Life at Bethel College

Bethel College is a Christian community committed to academic pursuit and spiritual growth under the Lordship of Jesus Christ. We are a people gathered for the development of our members and for the mission of Christ's kingdom in the world, to represent Him individually and collectively. While Bethel students are not obligated to espouse the Christian faith, as members of this community, all voluntarily agree to live in accordance with the values, expectations and goals of the Kingdom of God as expressed in Scripture.

Central to our place in the Kingdom of God is the shaping of our character to resemble Jesus Christ in holiness and purity of mind and heart. The Bible describes character qualities that should and should not be present in believers and among communities of believers. We attempt to evaluate our decisions, behaviors and priorities by Scriptural measures rather than cultural standards, by our submission to the Lordship of Christ, and by love for our neighbor. As members of this community, we covenant to engage actively in the pursuit of personal holiness by obedience to Scriptural teaching.

- We agree that this pursuit will include corporate worship, fellowship and biblical instruction in chapel, participation in spiritual emphasis services and involvement in a local church.
- We agree to express our love for God and others through service, including Bethel community service days, service within the academic curriculum and individual initiative.
- We agree to follow the biblical precepts regarding sexual purity. We will avoid immoral conduct including premarital sex, adultery, homosexual behavior and the viewing or distribution of pornography.

Community life requires agreement on what behaviors will and will not be acceptable. While Scripture is very clear about many behaviors that affect our character, much is left to interpretation. The Christian life conveys great liberty of conscience, but within community it also conveys the need for deference to one another. In our life together, we follow the clear biblical principle of sacrificing personal freedoms for the good of the community. Accordingly, when differences arise, we covenant together to choose the course that requires self-sacrifice and self-discipline.

- Because we believe our minds and bodies should be used in ways that honor God, we agree to abstain from tobacco in any form, alcohol and gatherings where alcohol is present, illegal drugs or narcotics not authorized by a physician.
- Because we value each member of our community as reflecting the Creator, we agree to avoid abusive words and actions including profanity, hazing, threats of violence or discrimination based on race, ethnicity, gender or physical trait.
- Because structures of authority are necessary for every community, we agree to respect and honor those in authority over us, even when we might disagree with their decisions. We agree to abide by the policies and procedures set forth in the Student Handbook, Residence Hall Guidelines and the college catalog, respecting these guides as part of our covenanted life together.

In the Bethel community, staff, faculty and other students work together to maintain standards of righteous community life consistent with Scripture. For the good of the community as a whole, we voluntarily submit ourselves to the accountability of others in the community as part of our covenanted life together. If we find ourselves unable to honor this covenant, withdrawal may be in order. We also recognize that appropriate action will be taken to teach, discipline or even dismiss those who disregard this covenanted agreement.

With earnest hope for a community that honors and represents our Lord Jesus, we seek God's plan for life together: "As God's chosen people, holy and dearly loved, clothe yourselves with compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness and patience. Bear with each other and forgive whatever grievances you may have against one another. And over all these virtues put on love, which binds them all together in perfect unity. And whatever you do, whether in word or deed, do it all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God." (Colossians 3:12-17)

Upon signing this Community Life Covenant, we hold ourselves to its precepts while registered as a student at the college.

In agreement with this covenant, I commit to the Bethel College community.
