V. Accounting Club funding request.

- A. Four accounting club members went to Indianapolis over Fall Break for the Indiana Society of CPAs 2009 Case Study Team. Total cost was $904; the club requested $250 for reimbursement.
- B. Cassie- clubs should attempt to do their own fundraising.
- C. Evan- we should give on the condition that Professor Sauwerwine is not able to gain reimbursement from local accounting agencies donations.
- D. Mike- Professor Sauwerwine was very generous, and we should reimburse the portion requested.
- E. Delaney- it was more a spur of the moment event and did not think to request STUCO for the money before the event.

- F. Cassie- precedence has been set when Agape Fire was approved reimbursement for gas mileage, not for housing.
- G. Rosten- Accounting Club should be approved for $150.
- H. Dustin is fine with giving them $250.
- I. Delaney- fine with $200.
- J. Haleigh- the accounting students should've chipped in some of their own money for hotels.
- K. Jen- fine with $200, but thinks $250 is too much.
- L. Delaney motioned we vote on the amount to give, Mike seconds. $250 wins over $200, 8-3.
- M. Justin motioned to give the Accounting Club $250, Mike seconded, and the motion passed unanimously.
