Using Interlibrary Loan (ILL)
Using Interlibrary Loan

This tutorial will explain:

• What interlibrary loan is and how to use this service
• How to make an interlibrary loan request
• What to expect from interlibrary loan
Using Interlibrary Loan

If Bethel does not have a book or an article that you want, you may make an interlibrary loan (ILL) request.
Using Interlibrary Loan

When you make an ILL request, the following happens:

• Bethel’s ILL department requests the item from another library
• The other library will either mail Bethel the book or photocopy the article
• When the book or photocopy arrives, Bethel’s ILL department will notify you that the item is available
  – Books will be available at the circulation desk to be picked up
  – Article will be e-mailed to you and a photocopy will be available at the circulation desk to be picked up
Using Interlibrary Loan

There are three main ways to make an interlibrary loan request:

– Fill out the online form
– Click on the interlibrary loan button (available when using a database)
– Fill out a paper form that is available in the library
To make an interlibrary loan request using the online form, first go to the library’s website and find the interlibrary loan links. Choose either the book or article request form.

You will see the following once your request has been sent:

Thank you for your request!
Using Interlibrary Loan

Once the request has been made, you will need to wait to receive the items. You may have to wait a week or two for the items to arrive especially for books.

Questions about the status of the items may be sent to Mark Root, who heads the Interlibrary Loan department, at mark.root@bethelcollege or 574-807-3389.
Using Interlibrary Loan

Once the items arrive, the interlibrary loan office will contact you by e-mail letting you know that the items have come.

– Books: Books will be left at the circulation desk. Just ask for the books. They will be due back on the date that is given on the interlibrary loan form that is with the book.

– Articles: Articles will be e-mailed to you.
Using Interlibrary Loan

If you have any questions about using Interlibrary Loan or about your Interlibrary Loan requests, feel free to contact Mark Root at mark.root@bethelcollege or 574-807-3389.
